

BETTER DAYS

Rain after a drought, a thaw after a freeze,
Signs of better days
For you and me.

Water dripping, pouring off the roof ... excitement all around
On a farm in Tennessee.
Yes, gradually to suddenly,
A thaw we see!

From the farm and beyond
Hearts softening, people turning, eyes seeing, ears hearing,
Signs of better days for you and me.

Well actually, most certainly what a wonder and a blessing,
Dust off those gui-tars, no need for privacy,
Better days we see
In Tennessee!
