

BLESSED TURNING AWAY

...God, having raised up His servant Jesus, sent Him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from your iniquities (Acts 3:26). The realm of goodness, blessing, is awaiting all who turn away from their iniquities and turn to being soaked in the goodness of God's will. We are all to turn away from our iniquities and turn to Jesus, creator God's perfect sacrifice for our sins, who was raised from the dead and exalted having the name above all names. Until a person turns away from their iniquities all they have to look forward to all their life is iniquity's inevitable reward: chaos, misery, strife, bitterness, death. You turn to Jesus by believing, receiving, confessing Jesus as Lord of all (including you), and being baptized. Openly welcome God's powerful Holy Spirit to help you overcome, lead you, and empower you to tell of Jesus. Your sins are blotted out and you abide in times of refreshing brought about by the presence of the Lord (Acts 3:19). You receive life!
