

BONDSERVANT PEACE

"Simon Peter, a bondservant and apostle of Jesus Christ" (2 Pet. 1:1a) A source of lack of peace is not knowing how to be, what to do, what to say and being upset over things we have little or no control over. Bondservants were relieved of those problems; they were commanded by the master and they were to do it. Their view was not important. When a person becomes a Christian, they are to become bondservants of Jesus Christ. That is the realm of self-denial and God's will being done and not ours. We are to simply find out what Jesus wants us to do and do it. This brings peace. We are relying on Someone with great love for us and great wisdom to guide us. Jesus said, "Come unto me all you who labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gently and lowly in heart and you shall find rest for your soul, for My yoke is easy and My burden is light. (Mt. 11:28-30)
