

CREATED COMPLEMENTARY PURPOSE

"...but for the man no helper was found as his complement (Gen. 2:20 HCS). God's created purpose for the wife is to be the complementary help for her husband. The differences between men and women are created differences so that they complement each other to bear fruit to God as one (not be rivals to each other). Actually you are against women if you try to seduce them to be discontent with God's created purpose for them. There is no higher purpose, no more fulfilling purpose for man and woman that fulfilling God's created purpose for each.