

I SAW THE KINGDOM OF GOD IN ACTION TODAY

I saw the kingdom of God in action today.
It was undaunted by the world's sway.
I saw love flowing to a least of these child.
I saw a wife loving her husband, respecting, not a rival, but mild.
I saw heart touching simple gifts sown as pearls of love.
I saw co-laboring with God, love from above.
I saw servanthood selflessly blessing.
I saw God sought, praised, and confessing.
I saw the Holy Spirit providing prayed for opportunities to help;
God's personal word of Jesus to them, their heart it melt.
I saw faithful work done as to the Lord.
It was honest, moral, right, an offering outpoured.
I saw a husband, God's word, not culture, his model on how to be;
Faithful, leading, overcoming culture's disdain of men like he.
What I saw required no committee or cultural approval,
Just some hearts at God's disposal.
I saw serving Jesus this way as one's all in all.
I pray eyes will be opened to the kingdom of God's call.
