

Say no to pride and worry and yes to thankfulness and faith

In the Bible we read over and over of instances that show God's hatred of pride and over and over that we're not to worry.

That saying, we do not need to excuse those things when it comes to ourselves and our families. It does not show our love to be proud of our children or worry about our children. God is pleased with thankfulness and faith.