

SECOND CHANCES/LOVE CONNECTIONS

Over and around where love abounds
The misty hills of Middle Tennessee,
A sight for sore eyes, a beauty I hadn't recognized, previously.

From Kentucky to Tennessee it's back home for me,
To an inherited farm from my family,
A second chance for me
To recognize the beauty of the day
After having been away.

Down the line it goes,
Great grandfather to grandmother,
My father to me.
I was my daddy's tag-along,
From tag-along to owner it came to be!

Car rides from town, fishing,
Time together,
Love connections came to be!
