

It Should Be Obvious Now

Some people are expecting things to be going well with themselves and society in general without Jesus in people's lives. We are seeing the result of that thinking. It should be obvious now that without Jesus in peoples' lives the outcome is chaos. Chaos is the result, and we shouldn't be so surprised, but there is a way for you to stand like a rock in these times. Jesus said, "Whoever hears these words of mine and does them will be like a man who built his house upon a rock." Jesus came to deliver us from this present evil age. (Gal. 1:4) We need to face the facts and let nothing stop us from reading about Jesus, receiving Jesus, and doing what Jesus says. Rock-like deliverance awaits. Read Matthew 5,6,7.
