

TENNESSEE THAW

Winter passing
On a farm in Tennessee,
Temperatures rising
Snow melting
Water dripping, pouring down
Off a barn, cows mooing...
A thaw we see!
Yes gradually to suddenly
Right before our very eyes,
No need for privacy...
A thaw we see!

Ears hearing
From a farm and well beyond,
Eyes seeing
Hearts softening
People turning, streaming
To the Lord, all rejoicing...
A thaw we see!
Well actually most certainly
A wonder and a blessing,
Dust off those gui-tars...
A Tennessee thaw we see!
