

The Solution

During the past few months God has given illuminations that have been the solution to major challenges. This has no doubt helped me. It can help others.

First, abide, not for the primary purpose of what good it will do you, but primarily so you can be near to Father, Son, and the Holy Spirit. Some have an abiding regular simmering bitterness within; they abide in bitter. We are to abide in the love of God. Abide so as not to be in the cold, empty, lifeless flesh realm. So you love God first with all your heart and soul and mind and strength. Then you love your neighbor as yourself with the love of God that has been poured in your heart by the Holy Spirit so you can love the way God loves with the love with which God first loved us. When a challenge comes up rather than losing peace and being pulled out of abiding, look upon it as an Opportunity To Seek God's Will, Find It And Do It (the acronym OTSGWFIADO). Pray for God's wisdom, believe you have received, nothing doubting. Then spiritually discern, which includes the fruit test. Next, choose Life by going with the best you know. Then pray, "God, Your will be done in this situation." Then go on, pressing on, not looking back, forgetting what is behind and certainly receiving no condemnation from any source for choosing Life. Do not abide in health condition consciousness, but in living for righteousness consciousness.

For every decision we make there is God's will for making that decision. Here is how we seek it, find it, and do it. We pray for wisdom in the matter and he gives it (James 1:5). What follows is how we receive what God has given.

First, the situation can be a case directly spoken about in the Bible, the Word of God; so we read it and do it (Ps. 119:105).

Second, we get a direct leading of the Holy Spirit. He can even remind us of a pertaining scripture (Jn. 14:26; Rom. 8:14).

Third, decide by our own spirit within according to its born again, new creation, made right by faith nature. It is a trustworthy source since we have the Spirit of God (I Cor. 7:25, 40; Eph. 4:24; 2 Cor. 5:17). The Holy Spirit will bear witness with our spirit that we are making the right decision, that we are truly led by the Spirit of God (Rom. 8:14,16).

Fourth, we can consider a choice for the decision and the anointing will tell us whether that choice is of God or not. This is deception prevention (1 Jn. 2:27).

Fifth, discern the Spirit's flow and stay in that flow (Jn. 3:8).

All we are after is God's will moment by moment. His will for us has already been decided in heaven. We access what has already been decided in the matter by his good ways. "Whatever you bind on earth is already bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth is already loosed in heaven (Mt. 18:18 Holman Christian Standard Bible).

There is great peace in simply seeking God's will, finding it, and doing it...burdens are removed, yokes destroyed.

A.

- a. Abide in love by having no evil desire abiding in you that gets easily stirred up by what someone says that is not Godly or does that is not Godly and conceives sin in you (James 1:14-15). So you will not have imagined arguments with them. Do not be one that trusts in themselves that they are righteous and despise others (Luke 18:9).
- b. Have nothing in you of the evil one (John 14:30) that desires to tell people off, instead abide in love for others so that you desire to tell them ON, ONTO JESUS! They are speaking-and-living-and-doing against God's will. Speak the good they are speaking and living against. Also, let it be a time to turn you ON, ONTO GOD'S GOOD WAYS.

B. Want to be like Jesus. This means you want to follow Jesus. So you deny self. Self denial means you do not abide in health condition consciousness. The only way to deny self, have victory over the flesh is the cross by the power of the Holy Spirit. So you take up your cross daily and follow Jesus. Whatever Jesus wants you to stop, you stop. It may be nothing wrong in and of itself; it just is not God's will for you for now. Whatever Jesus wants you to continue, you continue. Whatever Jesus wants you to start new, you start new. Live so that whatever encounters you (including your own soul), encounters Jesus. They encounter someone led by the Spirit of God to be there, with the mind of the Spirit, speaking only Spirit unctioned words, doing only what the Spirit says to do, and praying without ceasing with prayers and supplications with thanksgiving making your requests known to God and the peace of God that passes all understanding guards your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus. Jesus was walking wisdom of God lived out and spoken; be that way. Tension has to do with self; it is not of the deny self, take up your cross and follow Jesus realm. And you follow Jesus by following the Holy Spirit's leading by grace through faith.

- C. (1 Peter 4:12) Beloved do not think it strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened to you. So when a trial comes to us as a Christian, do not think it strange. So do not say "that is strange." Do not say it is strange. Since you are not to think it strange you are sure not to speak that it is strange. It is simply not strange for a Christian to be tried and their faith tested. In James 1:2 we are told to count it all joy when we fall into various trials. In Romans 5:3 we are told to glory in tribulations. So let's see if we have been properly trained: when a trial comes what is our response? Not think or say "that's strange," we count it all joy, and we glory in it. Why? Because we as Christians have the only teachings that can withstand any test. Those teachings, beliefs, are based on the Rock Jesus and stand against any storm (Mt. 7:24-25). Also, Romans 5:1-5 lets us know because we have been made right by faith we access standing grace and glory in tribulations because the tribulations give perseverance, character, and hope a workout as well as produces it. This hope of the glory being affiliated with us in tribulation is not a false hope. It is hope that is realized because the love of God has been poured in our hearts by the Holy Spirit so we can love the way God loves when He first loved us. The source of many trials comes through people not operating in Godly ways, His methods (they might treat you that way and you might not be in God's way using His methods yourself/see AboveMethods much further below). Since we love the way God loves, God so loved the world that God gave His only begotten Son in such a way that whosoever believes (has faith) in the Son shall not perish but have everlasting life. Hence, we do not get bitter toward the trial instigator allowing bitterness to sap our perseverance, pollute our character, and squash the hope of victory. By properly loving at trial time we experience 2 Corinthians 2:14; we are always led in triumph through the trial, the glory is on us through the experience and this glory manifests the fragrance of Christ. We remain in the peacefully abiding state through the trial and out the other end in victory.

- D. Absolutely crucify fretting, getting provoked, irritated, having bitterness or malice. Since self has been denied, this disarms fretting, being provoked, etc. because all this comes from things not going the way self likes and since self has been denied that thing inside you that fretted, that thing inside you that got aggravated is gone, disarmed, rendered inactive, dead. Focus has turned from self and it not getting to what it wants, to doing good, living for righteousness, dwelling in the land, feeding on His faithfulness, delighting yourself in the Lord....read all about it in Psalm 37. Denying self also means that we do nothing of-self but all is of-God, straight-forward with the truth of the gospel. (2 Cor. 3:5)
- a. If we have to wait until there is no evil around in our environment to not fret, then it would be impossible in this life for us not to fret. Instead we do the Spirit led good God has us to do in the sphere to which we are appointed. Since it is good that overcomes evil, we have done the part God wants us to do to overcome evil. We are to arise and shine in the midst of evil (Is. 60) without fretting since fretting only causes harm (Ps. 37). To be the type that rejoices and does not fret in heaven, we need to be the type that rejoices now without fretting.
 - b. In Matthew 5:38-44 Jesus tells how to be genuinely from the heart to the worst evil we could encounter on the path of life: turn the other cheek, give, second mile if compelled to go one, love, bless, do good, and pray for those evil. Instead of fretting over the evil, you can meditate the good to do to the evil we unavoidably encounter on the path of life. For evil not on the path of life, avoid it, don't meditate it (Pr. 4:14-15). If that is the way to treat the worst we could encounter, we definitely should be that way to lesser evil than that. This puts a stake through the heart of fretting and bitter.
- E. Do not pound yourself by being in law/works-ism. View yourself as a Christian and other Christians as new creation, made right by faith not works earthen vessels. So when you make an inevitable sin or mistake, do not condemn yourself for it, pound yourself. That is going to happen, apply the blood of Christ, learn from it, go on living for righteousness, not sin-conscious. Do not try to diminish the sin or mistake by thinking all the other good I did should make up for that.....wrong.....that is still law/works oriented. All we do is to be done by the grace of God, His Spirit's leading because we are in right standing with Him living for righteousness. Even the work of earthen vessel hands will have earthen vessel-ness in it. Continually seek the Holy Spirit's leading as to what is done and the level that it is to be done; then be content when it is done by His grace to that level. So trying to be perfect and pounding self and other Christians when they are not is futile law/works-ism. Live in liberty according to what saved by grace through faith in the Blood of Jesus means and view other Christians that way.

- F. (1) Do not be surprised in the least at the behavior of those who have not repented, received Jesus and living by the power of the Holy Spirit. It is inevitable that they cannot sustain the practice of God-pleasing behavior toward you or others or else there would have been no need for Jesus to come to die for our sins and give us His Holy Spirit. The only way to have victory over fleshly behavior is the cross and the power of the Spirit. (2) Admit the reality that people like that, the only hope is for them to receive Jesus and live by the power of the Spirit. (3) So do not hate them, get bitter toward them, love them as God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son for them and us. See people as potential new creations made in the image of God, but be vigilant until they are new creations walking according to the Spirit. (4) Hence, do your part to give them opportunity to repent by telling them of Jesus and the power of the Holy Spirit to touch and transform hearts, and also, living the Godly Christian life as an example. (5) Be extremely vigilant interacting with them. If at all possible do not get in debt to them or be in a situation where they have you where you have no recourse and they think they can get away with treating you any way they like. You can tell the heart of a person by how they act when they think they can get away with it. Stay on the narrow path where you are the head and not the tail, and if there is any indebtedness, you are not indebted to them, but they are indebted to you and will have to summons up treating you well. Do not be naïve in interacting with those not new creations or those not practicing the loving Spirit led life.

- G. Love, forgive, abide, be thankful, and have that Matthew 12 attitude of going about speaking justice, in love, until He brings forth justice to victory.
- H. Believe and enter into His rest. For any promise of God, say “I believe it” and soak in the abiding peace. Believe, relax, receive the love (Belinda).
- I. Do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing.
- J. Bear what you are supposed to bear, so your wife and all you have God ordained responsibility for do not have to bear it. God calls, anoints, and appoints His head to lead by hearing from Him and leading those appointed by God to be under the head. If the head drops the ball on seeking and finding the regular leading from God for being head, then the head has left those under the head with no directions. By no means get upset with the directionless when you are to supply wisdom from above to direct them. In general, absolutely no bitterness toward those under the head....love and properly lead. In general, be boldly confident and not harsh about God-given responsibility. The responsibility that is burdensome is people pressuring you into not God-given responsibility, but responsibility taken on for reasons other than God. God gives the grace and joy for His responsibility. His yoke is easy; His burden is light. You have that God-given responsibility to show love in a state of increase of peace with no end.
- K. Steer clear of the confusion, chaos realm.
- L. For speaking out your choosing life and for when you will speak to people, live by the Mark 13:11 spiritual principle.. do not worry beforehand or premeditate what you will speak, but whatever is given you in that hour speak that, for it is not you that speaks, but the Holy Spirit. This principle shows great love because it gives the ones you are speaking to the absolute freshest word of God for them through you. You want to be walking fresh word of God by continually abiding and following the leading of the Holy Spirit in what you think, what you say, and what you do. Also, from James 3:17 we see that the wisdom from above (the Holy Spirit’s leading about what to do and speak) is good-for-persuading (see the Greek for willing to yield). So you are giving them and yourself the most persuasive goodness there is: God’s word, God’s leading. If you are worrying and premeditating what you will speak when you will be speaking in the future then only part of you is where you are now...you are distracted. You are not giving now where you are the freshest from God. You are dishonoring God's precious now as well as not having faith that God will do God's best on time for you and others in the future. Always stay in the now; not merely the now, but God's now. We have assurance God will anoint our nonworried about beforehand, nonpremeditated speaking that we will speak. There is no promise for God anointing imagined future encounters, imagined arguments, imaginings about the future which mostly never take place and we will not speak. God definitely does not anoint worry about the future and vain imaginings. God does not want to hear our vain imaginings; they are enmity to Him. Others do not want to hear our vain imaginings (even though this is not a true test), so don't think them. All that is to be cast down. Stay in God's precious now; not just the now, but God's now. God is I AM which means God is NOW. There can be seemingly noble thoughts about not now, but if they are not of God, cast them down. Appreciate the precious simple things that are happening in God's now, savor them and be thankful. It's our turn to live now; don't miss out on our turn by not being in the now when our turn happened.

- a. The Mark 13:11 principle applies not only to speaking, but to being and doing. As you are about to go to a situation, do not in advance ponder of self many scenerios and of self thinking of what would be done. Go to all path of life situations and live out the offense of the Spirit's leading when you get there as well as the defense of the Spirit's leading when on the scene. Have great faith that God will not leave you as an orphan on the scene. God's Holy Spirit will give the leading. Make sure self has been denied so you can properly discern the Holy Spirit's leading. God's word, the Holy Spirit's leading, can withstand any pressure large or small and overcome in any test. All other teachings their foundation is sand, and great will be the fall of basing speaking, being, and doing on those teachings. Simply receive God's word on how to speak, be, and do when it comes in God's timely fashion.

- M. Flow in, feed on, only wisdom from above. It is pure, peaceable, gentle, good for persuading/teaching (James 3:17)...full of good fruit, confusion free.
- N. As I have heard said, do not elevate people; God is first. No one can steal your joy this way. Also, do not elevate things. When Paul was in Athens the word says he considered the objects of their worship...worship only God.
- O. Absolutely crucify the spirit of rush and any perverse time consciousness. Peacefully pause between graced tasks or even mid-task. Focus on only one thing at a time. Do not get in a soul/works dominated mindset where you pressure yourself from a list of task after task to be done nonstop. Lists, even mental ones are not lord. Pause, be grateful for what God's grace did through you; peacefully celebrate it, and rest without sleeping.
- P. Do not look at the world and and get bitter how bad things are getting and how bad it is what people are doing. Do not keep watching bad things (Is. 33:15-16, 2 Pet.2:8). As I have heard said, knowledge of evil does not overcome evil, but good overcomes evil. Believe, think, speak, and do the overcoming good. The blood of Christ, resurrection life power, and walking according to the Spirit is the only thing that overcomes sin. If you are moaning and groaning and complaining how bad the worldly are who in the whole earth is going to have the intended joy of the Lord? Instead of you having your mind on the worldly and their deeds, have your mind locked on how good God and His ways are. Let their bad fruit bear witness to how good God's ways are..use them a negative role model...do the opposite!
- Q. Live and focus on Austin-and-Belinda land...the path of life for Austin and Belinda (Proverbs 4:26), the simple life; it is God-pleasing; God's grace is there! Create and protect and appreciate an environment of simple, precious things (Do not think of ourselves more highly than our body part nor less than the body part that God has set us to be and the gifting the Spirit has distributed to us. We flourish when abiding in our body part spirit, soul, and body. That body part for Austin and Belinda is: Be Godly men and women, live the joined anointing as husband and wife. Be loving parents, parents-in-law, grand parents. Be wisely walking opportunity for people to learn how to be closer to God through Jesus. Have wise, brief, loving, goodwill encounters with people. Continually sow Spirit led good. Be faithful stewards of what God has entrusted to us to keep and beautify. Find your body part for you and peacefully flow in it. View fellow Christians as earthen vessel body parts that God works through to His good pleasure.) The world that you do not encounter on the path of life for Austin and Belinda, shut it out except to pray for it. You encounter plenty of world to interact with on the path of life for Austin and Belinda.

- R. Jesus bore our pressure (Jn 16:33). Tribulation is pressure. Christ overcame it and in Christ we overcome. We use what are His proven overcoming means. The Holy Spirit is His peace that he left with us. We get the Spirit's leading, set our faith in it as the word of God, follow the leading by the grace of God. The word (the Spirit's leading), grace and faith bear the pressure and we overcome. All the time the Holy Spirit lives up to what He is called Comforter, Helper, Advocate by comforting, helping, interceding for us. Courage is required for life; courageously following the Spirit's leading by grace through faith is the courageous overcoming norm for our entire life.
- a. The true test of a teaching is how it bears up under pressure. When you hear and do the teachings of Jesus, you can bear up under any pressure. You are like a man that builds his house on a rock; it stands (Mt. 7:24-27). Basing your life on the teachings of Jesus you stand and glory in tribulation/pressure by persevering, having tried proven character and hope that does not disappoint (Rom. 5:3-5). In 2 Cor.8:3, they were proven, tried by pressure/tribulation, yet they still had abundance of joy and even though in deep poverty they abounded in riches of liberality. You need no other than Jesus and His teachings; they pass all tests and under pressure large or small they glory, are glorious. There is no such thing as insignificant pressure/tribulation against us. Respond by being and doing Jesus' glorious teaching.
- S. The blood of Jesus, resurrection life power, and walking according to the Spirit is the ONLY thing that has victory over sin and sin is the problem. Speaking and living by this is the weapon the world cannot counter or overcome. Do not be duped by the world into not speaking it lest you offend. The offense God is against is offending the believers into not believing, not offending the unbelievers into believing. Do not fall for the con to be silenced from talking Jesus. Do not change Godly private conversation when around the world in public.

- T. Confidently walk in the Spirit. Be exceedingly confident you have discerned the sought after Spirit's leading and walk in it by grace through faith. Jesus said, "No one having put his hand to the plow, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God (Lk. 9:62)." So plow the Holy Spirit's leading. When you get the Spirit's leading, no tentativeness; go with it not looking back. This drives away any tentativeness. Tentativeness is a form of condemnation. There is no condemnation for those in Christ Jesus who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. Condemnation tries to pound you into wimpily being lorded over by sin, false you-are-nothing humility, and hold you back from joyfully, powerfully serving God, living for righteousness. You walk in love, have the joy of the Lord, have peace, are patient, goodness and kindness flow out of you as fruit and the fruit of what you do, you are gentle, have faith and are faithful, and God-controlled by the Spirit...all this is the fruit of the Spirit.
- a. Be so confident of what God is doing in our lives through following the Holy Spirit's leading that we are not drawn to belittle what we are in Christ and what we are doing and cower in the realm others are living in (and having their realm dominate your thoughts after being in that realm or when in that realm). In quietness and confidence shall be your strength (Is. 30:15). Christian love shown where your left hand does not know what your right hand is doing is as important as highly visible things done by you or others.
- U. As I have heard said, have contentment, not talk too much, and not into works but life in the Spirit.
- V. Have the mind of the Spirit, thinking only thoughts whose origin is from above, the wisdom from above (James 3:17). Any thought of God is better than any thought of man. I am a man, so any thought of God is better than any of Austin's of-self thoughts. Since the thoughts of man are futile (Ps. 94:11) and I am a man, then my of-self thoughts are futile. Since the wisdom of the world is foolishness to God (1 Cor. 3:19), then my of-self thoughts are foolishness to God. Since God does not anoint worried about beforehand or premeditated thoughts about what we will speak, then they are futile and foolishness to God. I definitely see the emptiness of “coffee table” talk, listening to people saying “I think”, “I think”... so do not listen to my own of-self thoughts; they are in that futile category. Instead, flow in the mind of the Spirit and experience life and peace (Rom. 8:11).

- W. Love people properly by having faith for them. Worrying and in anguish of soul for them is not of God, but are of-self thoughts that are futile to deliver. Trying to rely on of-self thoughts is trying to lean on your own understanding (Proverbs 3:5); instead, we are to trust in the Lord with all our heart that the Holy Spirit will give us wisdom from above that delivers...we receive it, believe it, do it, and crucify harmful own understanding.
- X. Do God's things and think God's thoughts at God's pace; do not try to crowd even one extra thing not of God in. The important thing is at the end of the day is to be able to say that I did abide the whole day..abiding is the realm where you bear much fruit (Jn. 15). Doing things not abiding is to be in works. Do not be like Martha (Lk.10:38-42), distracted by much serving, worried and troubled by many things. Be like Mary, choosing the one good, abiding.
- Y. From Ephesians 3:20 we know that God-is-empowered to-do exceedingly-above-all-we-ask-or-think according-to the-power-that-is-energized-in us. So energize all of the above by God's power in us, and watch God do exceedingly above all that we ask or think.
- Z. We have prayed and believe we receive that the increase of God's peace in us there will be no end(Is. 9:7).
- AA. Just and true are God's ways (Rev. 15:3). When you seek and find the way, the method, of doing something from God (like a method of how to run a class), when he shows you an AboveMethod, simply stay in that Method in peace. All of wisdom's ways are of pleasantness and all her paths peace; they are like a tree of life to those who find her and happy are those who hold her fast (Pr. 3:17-18) and do not get out of the AboveMethod not get entangled in the problem. Speak to the problem. Jesus said He spoke to the world (Jn. 8:26). No entanglement, fellowship, communion with the problem.

BB. Walk according to the Spirit. This includes (1) walking in resurrection life power (Rom. 1:4; Eph. 1:19-23). This power is toward us who believe. That same power is in us as a Michael W. Smith song says. (2) walking in no condemnation (Rom. 8:1) since we are walking according to the cross, straightforward about the truth of the gospel (Gal. 2:14) and not under law (Gal. 5:18). (3) fulfilling the righteous requirement of the law (Rom. 8:4). (4) setting your mind on things of the Spirit and having life and peace. (5) life being given to your mortal bodies (Rom. 8:11). (6) putting to death the deeds of the body and living. (7) walking in freedom and liberty, since where the Spirit of the Lord is there is freedom/liberty (2 Cor. 3:17). You line up your nature according to the nature of the Holy Spirit within, you are straightforward in line with, the Spirit's nature, power, and strength in full measure in you and flowing through you and you bear the fruit of the Spirit (Gal. 5:22-23).

CC. Know that we are not sufficient of ourselves to think of anything as from ourselves, but our sufficiency is from God, who also makes us sufficient (2 Cor. 3:5-6) by giving us His grace that is sufficient for us, for His strength is made perfect in our weakness, in our admitted of-self insufficiency (2 Cor. 12:9). So we humble ourselves, submit to God, boast in our of-self insufficiency and His grace sufficiency is given to us (James 4:6-7). The power of Christ rests upon us (2 Cor. 12:9), we have all sufficiency in all things (2 Cor. 9:8), we are strong, we resist the devil and he flees, and we overcome. So much pressure comes on people by knowing of their of-self insufficiency and trying to plow ahead against the challenge without grace. When you have grace, you have victory and peace.

DD. Live according to the Nehemiah 6:11,13 way: Should such a man as I flee (or fear evil)...for I perceived that for this reason he was hired that I should be afraid and act that way and sin so that they might have cause for an evil report that they might reproach me. So such a person as I should not fear evil, only fear God, for all the reasons Nehemiah was not to.

EE. Definition of freedom, liberty: Earnestly desiring to do God's will and being able to do it. Our ultimate goal is to get to live for righteousness (1 Pet. 2:24), to serve the living God (Heb. 9:14). Because of the cross of Christ, His resurrection, His ascending to the highest position possible, we who believe have been made right by faith and do not experience the end of Romans 7 futility of wanting to do good and not being able to do the good we want to do because of trying to be right in God's sight by works of law. We are already right in God's sight and free to do right. If you get a leading of the Holy Spirit to do something and fear of man keeps you from doing it, then you are not in liberty; you were not able to do the thing led by God to do because of the fear of man. For freedom Christ has made us free..freely desiring to do God's will and able to do it.

- FF. This lifeway is of God, so it is overcomingly powerful... far more powerful than any worldly wisdom, like psychology (its diagnoses, drugs, appeal to can't help it), feminism, so-called multi-culturalism, tolerance, and diversity, whatever is of the world. This lifeway of God is born of God so it overcomes the world (1 John 5:4).
- GG. All faith for all God's promises all the time (James 1:6-8). No blame assigning. Now my vessel is to be used by God to the works of God through me. (John 9:2-4).
- HH. Only desire the Holy Spirit's leading which includes only desire Holy Spirit timing. Do not desire anything that the Holy Spirit is not going to lead you to do. Desire only what the Holy Spirit will lead you to do and desire only His timing for it. Desire to learn only what the Holy Spirit leads you to learn and only desire the Holy Spirit's timing for when it is learned. When He gives the green light to learn it the anointing will teach you (1 Jn 2:27) in a state of joy and peace.
- II. Be drawn to fix on God's good things. Jesus said if He was lifted up He would draw all men unto Himself (Jn. 12:32). Be drawn to fix on Jesus. Do not get angry at all the evil in the world and have trouble getting that out of your mind. Have your mind drawn to think on Godly things. Be streaming to the goodness of the Lord (Jer. 31:12). Enjoy living His will and spreading His will and allow no penetration of the other into your heart and mind to fix on. Do not get angry at others not living God's will, instead enjoy living His will yourself. Nothing can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus (Rom. 8:39) so nothing can stop us from living out God's will ourself in love, joy, peace, purity, and power. When you are following the leading of the Holy Spirit, you are streaming to the goodness of the Lord, you are going Up-stream, the upward high and holy way. God has laid up, prepared for goodness for us, fix on that (Ps. 31:19).

- JJ. Let nothing in the past, present, or future, real or imagined rob the good of the past, present, or future. Courageously stand against what would rob the good, of the past present or future. Jesus said for us not to be anxious about tomorrow (i.e. not letting fear of evil about tomorrow rob the now) Matthew 6:34. Each day has its portion from God. God is our portion and be content with and focus on the portion God has for us for the day.
- KK. Let nothing choke God's love flow to you, your love flow to God, and God's love through you to others.
- LL. Always focus on the Holy Spirit's leading. Honor it by staying focused on it. Be attune for a shift in the Holy Spirit's leading. Be thankful.
- MM. God created man and woman to complement each other (Gen. 2:18). You can never expect fulfillment in life living counter to God's created purpose for you as a man or woman. The man was created to lead in the family and the woman was created to be comparable, complementary help and submit to her Godly husband (Eph. 5:22-33), both created in the image of God. When God gives you God-given responsibility that means God has created, designed, called, appointed, anointed you to lead by grace through faith, Spirit led and that God appointed authority position is needed and necessary. God given authority is to be lovingly used to help create an environment where those under you can flourish, be protected, and if necessary corrected. The one in authority denies self for the sake of those under him.
- NN. Die to self (Lk. 9:23), die to the world (Gal. 6:14), and be grounded in the cross of Christ (1 Cor. 2:2) to overcome being deceived and being taunted by deception. You pick up deception by God revealing to you that it is counter to the cross of Christ. So know God's foundational truth so well that whatever comes against it is crushed and exposed (Mt. 21:42-44). So the great hope for defeating deception is to teach the cross of Christ and see the deception is counter to it.

- OO. All of the proceeding comes from God's word. If you hunger to know the scripture reference, just ask someone who knows the Bible and they can help you. Enjoy living God's solution.
- PP. In order to abide in victory, you must have daily illumination, daily bread from God relating to the matter. (Mt. 4:4) Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that PROCEEDS (present tense) from the mouth of the Father. (Mt. 6:11) give us this day our DAILY bread. (Rev. 22:1) the pure, clear river of water of life PROCEEDS from the throne of God and the lamb, making our daily drink available. In the physical we need to eat regularly to live; it should be no surprise in the spiritual that would be the same too. All these many points of this teaching came from writing down illuminations regularly PROCEEDING to me on the matter.
- QQ. Jesus strongly did not allow people to stop his mission even with noble sounding things. (Like Peter not wanting Jesus to be crucified..sounds noble..Jesus strongly rebuked. Like Jesus's relatives trying to pull away Jesus from his mission of teaching people about God...he made it plain His real close relatives are those who hear the word of God and do it.) Our mission of living a quiet and peaceable life in all Godliness and reverence and simply, secretly spreading mustard seed good including God's word may need from time to time to back off those trying to snuff out us and our mission. Sometimes peace is brought about by a successful war against evil using strong clear rebuke (Rom. 16:20).
