

WONDER WHY

There has been a lot of squeaking and squawking about President Trump. Some people wonder why he could have ever been elected and dumbfounded that he continues to have some of the supporters he does.

Consider the last number of years and the agenda that has been thrust on the American people. Some people have loved that agenda and have been greatly emboldened by it. Others have cringed, especially the evangelical Christians, who feel they and their families have been infringed upon.

As a result, there has been an uprising of sorts to support someone who will, in their eyes, not support that agenda. The agenda has been so loathsome to these people that they have been willing to support President Trump, possibly the only republican who could have beaten Hillary Clinton. Of course, there have been others who have supported him for other reasons, but a great number have seen him as a way to halt the imposition on themselves and their families of an agenda that is abhorrent to them.

Consider that those who have had a part in promoting the agenda of the last number of years could have helped bring forth the uprising against the agenda and the resulting election outcome and aftermath. It's possible that they may have helped cause their own squeak and squawk.

God is love and part of that love is to establish what is good and what is evil. He gave His only son to die for us, a sacrifice for our sins, so that we might be reconciled to Him and live for Him. He is a holy and good God.
